

RECENT MAJOR SUPPORT

The following businesses and organizations have provided major support for Kybele programs in the past two years.

Grants and Donations

OAA (Obstetric Anesthetists Association)	$60,000
IASP (International Association for the Study of Pain)	$20,000
SOAP (Society for Obstetric Anesthesia and Perinatology)	$10,000
The Lacy Foundation	$10,000
BBraun	$ 5,000
Indigo-Orb, Inc.	$ 5,000
Foundation for Purposeful Living	$ 2,500
Conde Nast Publications	$ 1,000
Hopscotch Adoptions	$ 1900
Partners for Adoption	$ 500

In-Kind Donors (This list represents only a portion of recent in-kind donations)

Ingram Art

Ingram Art developed the Kybele logos, brochures, certificates, presentation folders, merchandise tags, letterhead, stationery, donation forms and other marketing materials pro-bono.

Blink Ready, Inc.

Dina Dunn developed a power point format and marketing materials.

Ghana Health Service

Ghana Health Service has provided housing, in-country transportation, meals and other related costs for all participants in the Kybele Ghana program. Kybele teams visit Ghana 2-4 times per year.

Duke University Global Health

Duke Global Health has provided strategic planning support for Kybele programs.

Wake Forest University

Wake Forest University developed and produced the Kybele promotional video. Wake Forest University Department of Anesthesia has also provided paid support to Dr. Medge Owen for Kybele related programs and support for Kybele sponsored fellows.

Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP

Kilpatrick Stockton provides pro-bono legal support to Kybele.

Canadian Food for the Hungary International

CFHI donated more than $2,000,000 worth of medical equipment and supplies for Kybele programs in Ghana.

Indigo-Orb, Inc.

Indigo-Orb has donated cases of epidural trays for programs in Georgia, Mongolia and Romania. An annual traveling scholar award has also been created.

Bob Willix of Philips Medical

Critical care and fetal heart monitors were donated to Ghana.

Delta Air Cargo

Medical equipment was flown to Ghana without charge.

Lufthansa Airlines

Medical equipment was flown to Romania without charge.

Makin' it Happen Proto

Jane Martin has provided consulting and professional support for the Kybele organization

Johnson-West Associates

Johnson-West Associates has provided consulting, materials and professional support for the Kybele organization.

Forsyth Medical Center

FMC provided a donation of Hospira PCEA pumps (Abbott Pain Manager APM II) and boxes of infusion cartridges for Kybele projects in Croatia and The Republic of Georgia.

Lyndhurst OBGYN

Lyndhurst OBGYN provided a donation of Imex Pocket-Dop II Obstetrical Dopplers.

Nancy and Julie Jenner

Nancy and Julie Jenner organized the "Linen Drive Project", whereby they collected hundreds of pounds of new and slightly used bed linens, blankets, towels, and baby clothing for use at Ridge Hospital in Ghana.

Kathryn Parham and Family

Kathryn Parham and her family donated hundreds of hand-made baby hats for the Kybele Ghana project.

Winston-Salem Montessori School

WS Montessori collected a large amount of school supplies for children in Accra, Ghana during a Kybele team visit.